1. Is the protocol the same?

Yes the protocols are the same

2. Is the cost the same?

Yes, the cost is $20 for public entities

3. Are the 6 pilot districts for the U of I Test of the Abbot test on the way to local health departments?

4. U of I has received FDA approval?

No and there is no clear timeline, but we expect it to be weeks not months

5. When will contracts be sent to local districts?

The can be sent next week

In Question 3, I think she is referring to the BinaxNOW test that the state is distributing through LHDs.

It's Questions 1, 2, 4 and 5 I would need your input on in order to respond.

Thanks,

Jesse,

I reached out to the districts in DuPage who were previously interested in the testing and also the DuPage Department of Public Health. They asked several questions:

1. Is the protocol the same?
2. Is the cost the same?

3. Are the 6 pilot districts for the U of I Test of the Abbot test on the way to local health departments?

4. U of I has received FDA approval?

5. When will contracts be sent to local districts?

We are anxious to help with the successful role out of the U of I protocol.

Thanks for helping me get this information to my members.

In the type of stunning reversal we're all used to by now, GOH is now back in – albeit out of the immediate rollout priority to make sure everyone is clear on plans and timing.

Harry (the new CEO) is committed. I stressed that we didn't want him participating due to pressure he might be feeling from Springfield or elsewhere. In response, he said he just was basically blindsided on his first day and feeling overwhelmed and that certain critical folks (like their CFO) wasn't even aware of the project. After several long meetings with his staff they all feel that this is absolutely the right thing to do for them as an organization.

Thanks again Ron.

On the four prospective customers/category of prospective customers we discussed yesterday, all clear to proceed on all four fronts.

I mentioned this to the school district folks in DuPage and they noted that not only are the Yale-Northwestern folks soliciting districts in DuPage, so are folks from Loyola/UW---see below.

<https://www.rblandmark.com/News/Articles/9-22-2020/D102%27s-weekly-virus-testing-draws-interest/>

Note that this started with District 102, but LaGrange District 105 is mentioned in the story about expressing interest in adopting this same saliva testing program.

Lucky for District 102 they have a school board member who happens to be a Professor of Microbiology and Immunology at Loyola. This professor got the saliva test from a colleague at the University of Wisconsin.

He set up the testing lab in the basement of the school!

Thanks much,

Jesse

Jesse,

Thanks for the time today, please see attached for the deck. The Grainger/Gies team is happy to help with the limited resource modeling. Nigel's team has been modeling for our campus and he too can . We have a number of options to help with modeling. We can also rerun it at any and happy to help.

John,

Thank you very much for the revised draft. DPH is circulating internally at this time and I hope to have consensus soon.

[REDACTED]

Please let me know if any concerns about the below proposed edits. Should DPH have any additional edits, I will pass those along as soon as they are made known to me.

Thanks,
Elizabeth

If DPH elects to utilize SHIELD Illinois program saliva testing at any of the State's 11 Community-Based Testing Sites (CBTS) as set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto, DPH through its CBTS on-site vendor shall be responsible for the specimen collection, transportation of those specimens to the SHIELD Illinois lab, and physician order for those specimens in addition to the cost of the test. The number and location of the CBTS identified in Exhibit B may change from time without need of formal amendment to this Agreement.

Thanks all for the hard and diligent work in getting us to this point.

We actually got a reprieve on the timing of the announcement, so we actually have a bit more time to prepare the final draft.

Of course, if we can get it done and out of the way by Monday, that would be great!

Thanks all, and hope everyone has a great weekend.

Subject: RE: ACTION NEEDED-CONFIDENTIAL: [REDACTED]

John,

Thank you very much for the revised draft. DPH is circulating internally at this time and I hope to have consensus soon.

[REDACTED]

Please let me know if any concerns about the below proposed edits. Should DPH have any additional edits, I will pass those along as soon as they are made known to me.

Thanks,
Elizabeth

If DPH elects to utilize SHIELD Illinois program saliva testing at any of the State's 11 Community-Based Testing Sites (CBTS) as set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto, DPH through its CBTS on-site vendor shall be responsible for the specimen collection, transportation of those specimens to the SHIELD Illinois lab, and physician order for those specimens in addition to the cost of the test. The number and location of the CBTS identified in Exhibit B may change from time without need of formal amendment to this Agreement.
